

ANTITRUST DIVISION
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

601 D Street, N.W., Room 10805

Washington, D.C. 20530

ATTN: Lhatoya Reed, Human Resources Specialist

Telephone: (202) 305-8996

Fax: (202) 514-0580

The Antitrust Division is responsible for enforcing federal laws designed to ensure that our nation's markets are free and open to robust competition. The Division engages in both civil and criminal litigation, and its work ranges over the entire spectrum of the U.S. economy.

Approximately two-thirds of the Division's attorneys are in Washington, D.C. There are also seven field offices located in Atlanta, Chicago, Cleveland, Dallas, New York, Philadelphia and San Francisco. These offices conduct the majority of the Division's criminal investigations.

Projected No. 7 (field offices)
of Volunteers: 16 (Washington, D.C.)

Internship Washington, D.C. and field offices nationwide
Location(s):

Application Resume, transcript (official or unofficial), writing sample (no more than 5
Materials: pages), dates when available and geographic preference

Qualifications: First-year (second semester) and second-year law students

Application Open until filled
Deadline:

Minimum Weeks 6 – 8 weeks
Required:

Salary: Volunteer (without compensation)

Assignments: Legal research; assist in trials and hearings; review documents; prepare legal memoranda and briefs; attend depositions.

Web Site: www.usdoj.gov/atr/index.html